Sunday 4th November—ALL SAINTS DAY

Welcome to our services

Thank you—to all who made last Sunday's 10.30 service so special. It was an excellent occasion with Church and Village together. The 2018 recipient of the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Bowl was Joe Poultney. Joe has planted out and maintained the displays throughout the village for many years and through his horticultural work has added considerably to village life. The Parish Council 'Commendation for work in the Community' went to Rose Kingsbury. Rose has managed the bookings and maintained the phone lines for the Barlaston Volunteers' Car Scheme for many years. The award recognises this and the part she has played in revitalising this much needed service.

It was also Bible Sunday, there a few sets of Bible reading books left for those who were unable to attend last week. Also—please help yourself to a 2019 diary.

Christian Bikers—Welcome to this morning's 10.30am Communion.

Memorial Service—4.00pm today.

The late Mrs Jean Harris: Jean was a regular member of our 4pm congregation. Her funeral service followed by interment with her late husband, Rev. A Harris, will take place at St Saviour's Church, Aston by Stone on Friday 9th November at 11.00am. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

Barlaston School Quiz Night: Friday 9th November at the Upper House. If you're interested in being part of a team to support school fund raising please get in touch with Ali Dando.

WWI Project for November 11th: If you have any war memorabilia which you would like to be a part of the display in the Lady Chapel on 11th November please contact Merrilyn Coutouvidis 01782 372046 email: m@coutouvidis.co.uk

Remembrance Sunday 11th November - 8.30am - Holy Communion service and 10.40am on the Village Green. The Act of Remembrance will be followed by a special exhibition and performances by children from Barlaston First School and refreshments in Church. No Mosaic Group on Remembrance Sunday.
